Musical notation for the song "Little Does He Know". The key signature is G major (one sharp). The chords are Em, Paula (a box around the word "Paula"), Am, and B. The lyrics are: Lit-tle does he know— what a rat he picked up at the side of the road—. The melody consists of eighth and sixteenth notes. The first two measures are Em. The next measure starts with a sixteenth note followed by a quarter note, with a box around "Paula". The next three measures are Am. The final measure is B.

A musical score for a solo instrument, likely a recorder or flute. The score consists of two staves. The top staff shows a melodic line with various note heads and rests, divided into measures by vertical bar lines. Above the staff, lyrics are written in a cursive font: 'aren't as safe as you thought'. The bottom staff contains a single continuous line of eighth notes. The key signature is A major (one sharp). The time signature changes from common time to 5/4 at the end of the piece. The score is annotated with several labels: 'recit.' above the first measure, 'a tempo' above the second measure, and '(Safety)' in parentheses above the last measure. Measure numbers 1 through 5 are placed above the staff.
